THE BULLDOG 1965

We the editors and staff present the 1965 Bulldog for your enjoyment and the lasting remembrance of your school days.

TO MR. WARK

In appreciation of his faithful years of service to Yale High School, the year-book staff and the students dedicate this 1965 edition of the "Bulldog" to
Mr. John V. Wark

ADMINISTRATION

*The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.*

SHAKESPEARE

Special congratulations go to the Yale High School Class of 1965 for completing your education under hardship conditions. You graduates have already proved to yourselves and the world that you can overcome handicaps by working hard under half-day sessions. Your class has come through in a magnificent way.

The Bulldog Staff deserves special credit for the 1965 edition, because this also was created under hardship conditions.

Working for the Class of 1965 has been a real pleasure.

A.B. and M.A. from University of Michigan. Also additional graduate work at University of Michigan.

The 1964-65 Bulldogs could be best described as, "Having good spirit and desire, but lacking in height." The season records were not impressive, but it doesn't describe the type of basketball played. The Bulldogs lost many of their games in the closing minutes.

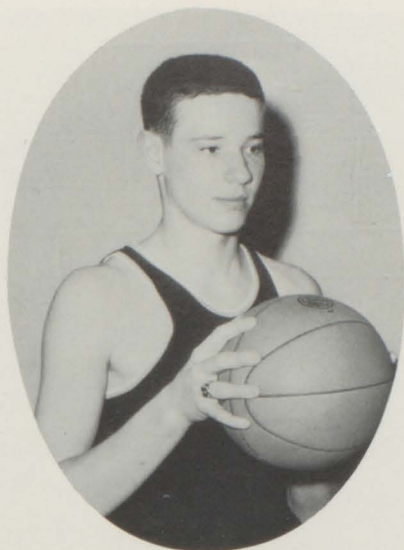

We feel certain that the aggressive play of the graduating players will be missed, but we know they wish us the best of luck in the 1965-66 campaign.
